

INFORMATION REGARDING PERSONAL DATA PROCESSING

Everest srl Single-Member-Company settled in Via Roma 98 – 31050 Miane (TV) in the capacity of its personal data processing holder (hereinafter referred as “Holder”), provides the present policy to the person concerned in respect of the European and Italian framework, in the field of personal data protection.

The present policy complements the navigation policy of our website, with purpose of illustrate to the User how the company will handle the data included in the present contact form: the user is therefore invited to inspect our privacy policy [privacy@everstsrl.eu].

Purpose and legal basis of processing

Everest srl Single-Member-Company, will not send newsletters: the Holder will handle personal data collected through the present form, only with the purpose of answering to the requests lodged, for example to obtain information regarding products or services (the sending of brochures, catalogues and/or other company informative material), to get a quotation, etc. The consent is therefore not required because the processing is necessary to reflect such requests.

Period of data retention

If the person concerned asks for a quotation, his data would be handled for a maximum period of one year from the response; on the other hand, for the other requests of information, the processing will last for the necessary time to get the targets for which the data have been required.

Nature of the provision of the data and consequences in the event of refusal

The provision of the data is strictly related to the use of the contact form and it is therefore necessary to provide the request of information: the non-reporting, in fact, entails the impossibility of fulfillment of such requests.

Area of communication of Users’ personal data and category of recipients

The Holder will not diffuse data but it plans to communicate them to internal figures authorized on the processing, for task reasons, to professionals or service companies, and to public and private bodies, also in consequence of inspections and examinations.

These recipients, where they should handle data on behalf of the Holder, will be charged as responsible of the processing, with relevant contract or legal act.

Data transfer to third countries and/or to International organizations

Personal data will not be subject of transfer, neither to non-European third countries nor to international organizations

Rights of the person concerned

It is right of the person concerned to ask to the Holder the possibility to access to its personal data and rectify them if incorrect, to erase them or limit their processing, if there are grounds for, as well as obtaining the data portability personally communicated.

In order to exercise its rights, the person concerned can use the form, here available, and send it to the Holder, to the following address [privacy@everstsrl.eu]. The person concerned has also the right to lodge a complaint to the relevant supervisory authorities, guarantor of the personal data protection (www.garanteprivacy.it).
